Click the 'library card' icon to manage your library card, and additional library cards within your family.

The screenshot shows a library app interface. At the top left is a book icon. To its right are three icons: a bell, a library card, and a gear. A black arrow points from the text above to the library card icon. Below these icons is a horizontal line. Underneath, there are four columns of account information: 'Overdue' with a calendar icon and '0', 'Due soon' with a calendar icon and '0', 'Ready' with a book icon and '0', and 'Fees due' with a dollar sign icon and '0.00'. Another horizontal line follows. Below that is the section 'New at the library' with the sub-section 'Books'. Three book covers are displayed: 'THE SERIAL KILLER'S APPRENTICE' by Katherine Ramsland and Tracy Ullman; 'On Friday Afternoon: A SHABBAT CELEBRATION' by Michal Babay, illustrated by Menahem Halberstadt; and a book by José Pa...

At the bottom of the screen, you can view your borrowing (and borrowing history if enabled), search for items, save titles to your shelves, and see details/hours for all LP2 library locations!

If you see a book outside of the library and want to know if it's in the LP2 collection, you can click the 'Search' option and then click the barcode icon.

Next, scan the book's ISBN, and see if it's available through the LP2 Collection!
